The only title that you might want to edit would be for fund 400. It includes the wording "Revolving" in the description even though it calls it Federal.

The attached file is what I had sent to all of you last week. I will look at the titles for each fund and let you know if I find any differences.

I took the info on the email below and made it into the attached file. I have added a column to the far right with the current cash balances as seen in CORE for today. Let me know if you are needing any additional information.

Mike,

See below. Julie and I discussed last night and the only thing she really had to add in terms of instruction, was could you also provide her any fund balances. Could you begin working on and then touch base with Mark and Felesha next week?

Thanks so much

Mark,

Julie and I discussed last night. We'll get them started on this and plan to get it back to you hopefully Tuesday or first thing Wednesday morning.

Thanks

I received this request from Anthony and with Felesha out I thought I should discuss with you before sending on to anyone in Finance to double check these numbers. Before we send a response to Anthony I need to provide you some information I have regarding this request and how this information may be used. Anthony has given us until the middle of next week to respond.
